If you have ever been caught on a country road in the dark and have had a bursted tire, how thankful you have been to have your tire took with you. point, thus necessitating but little work with the emery cloth, It can be quickly fashioned by anyone and at no expense. It has been found that tire tools are more often lost or mislaid than any other tool that is used with a car.

THE CHIN LINE

There are two things which are effective in improving the shape of a receding chin.

One is to wear the hair piled in a high knot on top of the head. This balances the sloping line of the chin and makes the profile and the outline of the head much more attractive; in fact, this method of hair dressing will make an otherwise hopelessly ugly chin, rather pretty.

The next thing to do in improving a receding chin or lengthening a too short chin line, is to stretch it and exercise It. The best exercise I know of is this very simple one-

Let the mouth hang open and throw the head back as far as possible, then close the mouth. This stretches and exercises all the muscles and ligaments under the chin and down the front of the neck, and it will not only improve the line of of the profile, but it will ward off for many years the tendency to flabbiness which is the first sign of a double chin. It will give that firm appearance which is so youthful and will keep your profile young even when wrinkles on the face show the approach of middle age. It will also do away with the tendency to deep creases aross the front of the neck which are a sign of approaching age.

Any exercise which stretches or brings into play the muscles of the neck and throat will improve this important line. To be beautiful, a woman must have a good line here; otherwise, her profile is entirely

If you have ever been caught on a country road in the dark and have had a bursted tire, how thankful you have been to have your tire good with you. Then you have realized what an indispensible item of equipment the lowly tire tool is in fitting a clincher tire on a rim, Many motor ists make a fine tire tool out of a piece of broken spring,

Touch up with emery cloth the thin end of a very old piece of spring. Old springs are very easily converted into tire tools because the thin end is usually worn into a sharp point, thus necessitating but little Findlay contractor had sores all over his body from scratching. Hands so sore unable to work all winter.

Declares two bottles of Dreco have healed every sore and stopped the burning and itching.

"If any person who reads this knows what it is to be tormented by that terrifying disease Eczema, they will easily understand why I am willing to publish my experience for the benefit of other sufferers," are the words of that well-known contractor, Mr. Steve Martin, 51 years old and residing on North Main St., Findlay, O.

"For twelve years I've suffered from eczema. Many a night I've rolled and tossed, unable to sleep because of this itching, burning disease. I had sores all over my body from scratching. My hands were covered with it and so sore I haven't done any work all winter. I often had dizzy spells and kept a vile taste in my mouth all the time, which convinced me that my liver was sluggish.

THE CHIN LINE

There are two things which are effective in improving the shape of a eceding chin.

One is to wear the hair piled in a high knot on top of the head. This balances the sloping line of the chin and makes the profile and the outine of the head much more attractive; in fact, this method of hair dressing will make an otherwise hopelessly ugly chin, rather pretty.

The next thing to do in improving a receding chin or lengthening a too short chin line, is to stretch it and exercise It. The best exercise I know of is this very simple one-

Let the mouth hang open and throw the head back as far as possible, then close the mouth. This stretches and exercises all the muscles and ligaments under the chin and down the front of the neck, and it will not only improve the line of of the profile, but it will ward off for many years the tendency to flabbiwhich is the first sign of a double chin. It will give that firm appearance which is so youthful and will keep your profile young even when wrinkles on the face show the approach of middle age. It will also do away with the tendency to deep creases aross the front of the neck which are a sign of approaching age.

Any exercise which stretches or brings into play the muscles of the neck and throat will improve this important line. To be beautiful, a woman must have a good line here; otherwise, her profile is entirely

That is the problem now facing the Central Union Telephone Company. During the last two years substantial increases have been made in the wages of our employes to aid them in meeting the higher cost of living. Running on Three Wheels

It is easier to pull a wagon that has only three wheels than it is to run a business without sufficient income to meet expenses. Each may struggle along for a time, but neither can travel fast nor far and the strain is great.

A business that lacks sufficient revenue to pay for the best workers and materials cannot give the best service. When the service suffers all users of the service suffer-

That is the problem now facing the Central Union Telephone Company. During the last two years substantial increases have been made in the wages of our employes to aid them in meeting the higher cost of living. These increases, together with increases in miscellaneous expenses and the cost of maintenance materials, have added tremendously to the cost of operation.

Unless the company secures rates that make it possible to purchase necessary materials and to pay wages that will hold good employes, it cannot give you good service.

The future of good telephone service rests on the securing of adequate rates.

THE CASE OF KOREA AGAINST JAPAN.

Rev. J. L. Campbell, D. D., has been a world traveler for my years and his analysis of conditions in the Orient is based on long familiarity with the Eastern countries. He is able to essay the changes which have followed in the wake of the world var as few writers could. His symmers of preaching in London and his years of travel abroad have given him the world outlook while his American pastorates, notably in New York and in Cambridge, Mass., enable him to interpret what he sees from the viewpoint which most will interest American readers. He has recently been "swinging around the circle." In a recent article strong and helpful sermons to an account of his visits to Japan, to China, to Korea, and appreciative audience, both of which ne gives an account of his visits to Japan, to China, to Korea, and o India. For months the world has been shocked at the story of Japan's practical ruthless "gobling" of its brave little neighbor, tion." At evening, "Does It Pay to Korea, as detailed by the letters from the missionaries there, all Serve God?" This evening. "The public little neighbor, to a service ne used as a there are the service ne used as a service ne used are the service ne used as a servi Korea, as detailed by the letters from the missionaries there, all of which tell the same story. Mr. Campbell dcubly confirms God Give Fair Warnings." The pubhese reports. We think our readers will be interested in what le says on the subject, as follows:

After three busy, delightful weeks in Japan, I went next to Korea, and ran into the great tragedy of that country. All honor to the Christian Herald for the noble service it has rendered in TENDER, ACHING, calling attention to the sad conditions that exist in this defenseless land. I feel that in America they are yet but very imperectly understood. We have been occupied with the great war in Dash Balm gives amazing relief in which we ourselves were engaged, and with internal unrest, so that we have become calloused even over scenes of blood.

In addition to this, Japan has had control of all cables and druggists can supply you. mails, and got her own story in first. Letters were censored and the position of missionaries was made exceedingly delicate and difficult. Never have I met with a nobler body of men than the missionaries in Korea. Discreet, manly, courageous, and their attitude in the trying circumstances in which they had been placed, has been beyond all praise. When the facts come out, and sooner or later they will, they will disclose one of the darkest tragedies of history and it will leave a stain on the reputation of Japan which can never be effaced.

Here we have a defenseless, inoffensive people of 16,000,000 to 20,000,000, their independence ruthlessly taken away from them and governed by an autocrat responsible only to the Mikado. This governor makes the laws, appoints and deposes judges, directs the decisions of courts, levies heavy taxes, and the people have nothing to say in the matter.

It is true that Japan has done considerable material improvement in Korea, but it has been pointed out that this again was of their rights and reduced to the condition of serfs. They then heard of President Wilson's principle of self-determination heard of President Wilson's principle of self-determination as applied to small nations. This gave them hope. The Peace Con- DIGESTIVE AND LIVER PUWLER ference was then still meeting in Versailles. They felt that this craves under our guarantee of good craves under our guarantee of good was the time to act. Instead of meeting this request and inquiring into the al- Plumpness Makes Health leged causes of their grievances, and seeking to conciliate the people, Japan turned loose upon them her brutal soldiers, with an indiscriminate violence and coarseness worthy only of savages. She has sade a fatal blunder. From this time on the Koreans will seems not to strengthen you; if your remain her undying enemies. Should Japan ever get into trouble, lips and cheeks are colorless, it is Korea will be arrayed against her.

Those who are desirous of seeing equity and justice prevail overcome you, as you have no reserve in the world should tell Japan that the only way to establish a strength or nourishment to uphold real friendship between America and Japan is for Japan to treat you. her neighbors in a humane and fair manner, that so long as spoliation and oppression continue and mere brute force is the prescribed for these conditions, and final arbiter in Japan's estimation, there can be no genuine friendship. PRINT PAPER.

THE shortage of paper makes publishers weep; and prices, they caper still higher each week. The publisher's legging around in the mart; the publisher's begging, with aches in his heart; for paper imploring, he's down on his knees; and prices are soaring like kites in the breeze. And Uncle Sam's printers use paper as junk; through summers and winters the documents punk that no one confesses to reading, I wot, come forth from the presses as mountains of rot. Oh, Uncle Sam's spoiling the paper we need for news hot and boiling, the stuff we would read. He's blowing the, boodle on volumes of slush, on endless flapdoodle that's not worth a rush. His basements are crowded-admit it he must-with printed stuff shrouded in cobwebs and dust. "Reports" and such litter are there by the stack; it makes a man litter, sends pains up his back. And new stacks are added to them every day-big tomes that are padded with buncombe and whey. His presses are creaking, they groan and complain, with publishers shricking for paper in vain.

THE CASE OF KOREA AGAINST JAPAN.

Rev. J. L. Campbell, D. D., has been a world traveler for y years and his analysis of conditions in the Orient is based n long familiarity with the Eastern countries. He is able to ssay the changes which have followed in the wake of the world ar as few writers could. His summers of preaching in London nd his years of travel abroad have given him the world outlook while his American pastorates, notably in New York and in ambridge, Mass., enable him to interpret what he sees from ne viewpoint which most will interest American readers. He has Sunday morning. He delivered two cently been "swinging around the circle." In a recent article gives an account of his visits to Japan, to China, to Korea, and India. For months the world has been shocked at the story orea, as detailed by the letters from the missionaries there, all Serve God?" This evening, "Does It Pay to which tell the same story. Mr. Campball, dealing there, all Serve God?" This evening, "Does It Pay to Serve God?" which tell the same story. Mr. Campbell dcubly confirms God Give Fair Warnings." The pubhese reports. We think our readers will be interested in what says on the subject, as follows:

After three busy, delightful weeks in Japan, I went next to Korea, and ran into the great tragedy of that country. All honor the Christian Herald for the noble service it has rendered in TENDER, ACHING, alling attention to the sad conditions that exist in this defenseess land. I feel that in America they are yet but very imperectly understood. We have been occupied with the great war in Dash Balm gives amazing relief in which we ourselves were engaged, and with internal unrest, so that we have become calloused even over scenes of blood.

In addition to this, Japan has had control of all cables and druggists can supply you. the position of missionaries was made exceedingly delicate and difficult. Never have I met with a nobler body of men than the missionaries in Korea. Discreet, manly, courageous, and their attitude in the trying circumstances in which they had been placed, has been beyond all praise. When the facts come out, and sooner or later they will, they will disclose one of the darkest tragedies of history and it will leave a stain on the reputation of Japan which can never be effaced.

Here we have a defenseless, inoffensive people of 16,000,000 20,000,000, their independence ruthlessly taken away from them and governed by an autocrat responsible only to the Mikado. This governor makes the laws, appoints and deposes judges, directs the decisions of courts, levies heavy taxes, and the people have nothing to say in the matter.

It is true that Japan has done considerable material improvement in Korea, but it has been pointed out that this again was of their rights and reduced to the condition of serfs. They then heard of President Wilson's principle of colf determined. in her own interest. The Korcan people felt themselves robbed neard of President Wilson's principle of self-determination as applied to small nations. This gave them hope. Should Japan ever get into trouble, lips and cheeks are colorless, it is Korea will be arrayed against her.

Those who are desirous of seeing equity and justice prevail in the world should tell Japan that the only way to establish a strength or nourishment to uphold real friendship between America and Japan is for Japan to treat you her neighbors in a humane and fair manner, that so long as A pharmaceutical product, called spoliation and oppression continue and mere brute force is the prescribed for these conditions, and final arbiter in Japan's estimation, there can be no genuine if taken for several months, rapidly friendship. PRINT PAPER.

THE shortage of paper makes publishers weep; and prices, they caper still higher each week. The publisher's legging around in the mart; the publisher's begging, with aches in his heart; for paper imploring, he's down on his knees; and prices are soaring like kites in the breeze. And Uncle Sam's printers use paper as junk; through summers and winters the documents punk that no one confesses to reading, I wot, come forth from the presses as mountains of rot. Oh, Uncle Sam's spoiling the paper we need for news hot and boiling, the stuff we would read. He's blowing the, boodle on volumes of slush, on endless flapdoodle that's not worth a rush. His basements are crowded-admit it he must-with printed stuff shrouded in cobwebs and dust. "Reports" and such litter are there by the stack; it makes a man litter, sends pains up his back. And new stacks are added to them every day—big tomes that are padded with buncombe and whey. His presses are creaking, they groan and complain, with publishers shrieking for paper in vain.

HOW TO RAISE

BABY CHICKS

Put Avicol in the drinking water.

Most people lose half of every hatch, and seem to expect it. Chick cholera or white diarrhoea is the trouble. The U.S. Government states that over half the white diarrhoea is the trouble. The U. S. Government states that over half the chicks hatched die from this cause.

An Avicol tablet, placed in the drinking water, will positively save your little chicks from all such diseases, Inside of 48 hours the sick ones will be as lively as crickets. Avicol keeps them healthy and makes them grow and develop.

Mrs. Vannie Thackery, R. F. D. 3, St. Parls, O., writes. "I had 90 chicks and they all died but 32. Then I commenced on Avicol and haven't lost any since. They have grown wonderfully."

It costs nothing to try Avicol. If you don't find that it prevents and promptly cures white diarrhoea, chick cholera and all bowel diseases of poultry, tell us and your money will be refunded by return mail. Avicol is sold by most druggists and poultry remedy dealers, or you can send 25c or 50c today for a package by mail postpaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 624 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.
